Greene Tells the Story of Killing His Wife.

JEALOUSY THE CAUSE

Made Up His Mind on the Way to Furley.

Thomas Greene has left the hospital and to now in jail. He talked with the reprerentative of the Eagle and made a con plets statement of all his trouble, which ended in the killing of his wife. He was Cures nervousness, told the effect this statement might have on his trial, in case he had a trial, but he was willing to talk. When asked if he had seen the Eagle's account of the affair, he replied that he had not; that he could no read; that some years ago he could read a little, but since his eyes required glasses he had not read writing nor print. unity knows the ages of two of his fourthildren-his son, who will be 21 in a few months, and his baby, who is 12

He tells a story of wrong. He says his wife two years ugo took up with a man by the name of Editor, and caused neighbor food talk, till he went away. They kept bounders in their little home, and Charle McDowell was one of the Burdeds. Mc Dowell is with the creamery at Furiey This part of the story has a number of to cidents reflecting upon his wife, including admission to him of the relation between her and McDowell. A rew weks ago ther was a row and there were threats and counter threats of shooting between Greens and McDowell. McDowell's gun tres in Greene's house and he went ther to get it, and finding the house fustened and believing Greene in the house, he kick. ed the door down to get at him. He was
